

The 1951 Frazer 4-door Sedan shows the clean, new beauty of the new body design. Its wonderfully low price makes the Frazer the linear top of 1951!

The 1951 Frazer Washington "hardtop"—a Frazer original body style. Its steel top is covered with vinyl-like nylon in exclusive colors. This much-copied car has 4-door luxury among its many exclusive features.

The 1951 Frazer Englewood—the famous 2 seats in 1—converts in 30 seconds from luxurious passenger sedan to spacious carrier... for sports or business equipment!

five new handcrafted
body styles 1951
FRAZER

Truly built to better the best on the road, the 1951 Frazer are handcrafted—with regally rich interiors in a wide variety of exclusive colors and fabrics. All models are powered with the new Supermatic High-Torque Engine, Hydra-Matic Drive, optional at extra cost. The Drive of Willow Run

The 1951 Frazer Convertible America's only 4-door convertible has added convenience, comfort, spaciousness and visibility... of course... a fully automatic top!

The 1951 Frazer Washington, with its metal top handcrafted around its glassless sides to enhance its sleek stream-line convertible look in solid steel. The round-shouldered over window is a Frazer innovation.